

Straight to the Heart

Radical Exposure Tapping and the Transformative Healing of Trauma

LAURIE MACKINNON, PhD

CONTENTS

List of Figures	viii
Foreword by Kasia Kozłowska, MBBS, FRANZCP, PhD	ix
Preface	xiv

PART ONE

Foundation and Lineage

1 What Is Radical Exposure Tapping?	3
2 How I Came to Do This Work	19
3 How RET Was Tested and Refined	33
4 Ways of Working with Radical Exposure Tapping	53

PART TWO

The Method

5 Getting Ready to Do the Work	73
6 The Safe Place Exercise	99
7 The List of Bad Memories	109
8 From Story to Target	127
9 Processing the Memory	143
10 Identity Conclusions	171
11 Float Back	195
12 Time Travel	205
13 Clinical Judgement — Safety and Timing	233
14 Hyperarousal and Dissociation	239
15 Memory in the Therapy Room	265
16 The Therapist's Dance	277

PART THREE

Case Studies

17	Sandra — “I Am a Bad Mother”	301
18	James — “I Am an Outsider”	321
19	Camille — “I Am Vulnerable”	335
20	Fatema — “I Am Going to Die”	345
21	Juliette — “I Am Dirty”	353
22	Brandon — “I Am Hopeless”	369

PART FOUR

How Change Happens

23	Theoretical Foundations: Memory, Imagery, and Integration	399
24	Memory Reconsolidation	409
25	How Emotional Patterns Update	427
	Conclusion: From Crystallised Memory to Integration	447
	Acknowledgements	454

APPENDICES

A	RET and Clinical EFT	458
B	Terminology Reference	463
C	Bridge Statements	470
D	Bridge Statements — Therapist Key	472
E	Tapping Points	474
F	The RET Process at a Glance	475
G	Prompt Sheet	476
H	Time Travel in Relation to Other Methods	478
	References and Further Reading	481
	Index	489